Participant organizations

Participant organizations include international organizations, intergovernmental organizations, other organizations with an international scope, and economies, that are willing to observe the GBIF MoU provisions. These Participants may send representatives to the GBIF Governing Board, may endorse data publishers and take part in collaborations such as regional meetings, mentoring programmes and training events. However, they are not eligible to become Voting Participants, and are not required to make a financial contribution to the GBIF budget.

Below is a list of all participant organizations with a summary of data published in GBIF.
